2020 Student Health Center (SHC) Summer Fee Explanation

Effective Date:

SHC Summer fee will apply to most visits between: 5/18/20- 8/05/20

Website Verbiage:

Students who do not pay the University Health Services fee must pay an access fee (SHC Summer Fee) to receive services during the summer sessions*. The SHC Summer Fee entitles UNC Charlotte students to many professional medical services, including, medical provider, nutrition, and psychiatry visits. For in-person visits the summer fee must be paid during the student’s first visit during each of the summer sessions. For telemedicine visits the summer fee will be added to the student’s bursar account for each session where applicable. Telemedicine visits include the use of two-way audio (telephone) or audiovisual (web-based video) communication.

* Newly admitted students are eligible to receive immunizations required to meet the N.C. Immunization statute without paying the summer fee.

Those who are subject to a SHC Summer Fee include:

- distance education students Note: all student will be considered distance learning for Summer 2020.
- students who are not enrolled in the summer session but who were enrolled the previous Spring semester and has registered for the upcoming Fall semester.

2020 Student Health Center (SHC) Summer Fee Explanation

- Within the same semester, Norm Niner will need to be seen again but, for an in-person visit. Telemedicine is not an option for the type of appointment he will need. He has already paid the $20 Telemedicine fee for the appropriate summer semester. Norm will have to pay an additional $20.00 fee for the in-person visit within the same semester.
- one TM fee totaling $20 + one in-person Summer fee totaling $20 = $40.00

Example 3: Telemedicine and add-on In-person visit within different summer semesters.

- Norm Niner is seen in Summer I AND Summer II for a SHC telemedicine visit(s) and pays the SHC Summer Telemedicine fee of $20.00 for each semester. These fees allow access to Telemedicine visits ONLY during either Summer I AND Summer II semester dates ONLY.
  - In Summer II, Norm Niner will need to be seen again but, for an in-person visit. Telemedicine is not an option for the type of appointment he is needing. He has already paid the $20 Telemedicine fee for the appropriate Summer II. Norm will have to pay an additional $20.00 fee for the in-person visit within the same semester.
  - Two TM fees totaling $40 + In-person Summer II fee totaling $20 = $60.00
